

Did you know, that your lunch benefit is worth of money?

Congratulations, your employer offers you lunch benefit with lunch deduction. By using the benefit, you will save up to € 550 a year! For example, if your employer offers you € 200 of lunch benefit, you will pay for it as follows:

LUNCH DEDUCTION

Your employer pays 25 % of the benefit.

75 % is deducted from your salary. In other words, if your employer offers you a lunch benefit of € 200, you will pay € 150 from it. Therefore, you will pay only € 7,50 for a lunch costing € 10!

Save money by eating - count your savings by using Edenred's savings calculator.

Please note that when using vouchers you will not get the change back!

You can search places, where to use your benefit, by using Edenred's search engine.

NB! Lunch benefit includes also meals that are bought from a grocery store. You can pay, for example, warm meals, sandwiches, and meals bought from a service counter by using vouchers. However, goods, alcohol, tobacco products, groceries, ready meals, and industrially packed foods cannot be paid with vouchers.
