

Enjoy your cultural benefit

If your employer is offering you recreational benefit, you have a wide selection of cultural events and sports events to choose from. You can buy tickets for cultural and sports events with Edenred card and with Virikeseteli® vouchers both on the premises and from online stores.

Cultural events include visits to places and events such as:

- Movie theatres
- Theatres
- Concerts
- Museums
- Art exhibitions
- Sports events
- Science centers
- Some of the art- and language courses (no material costs)

You can pay for both event tickets and their delivery fees with your recreational benefit. If your benefit doesn't cover the whole ticket fee, you can pay first with your benefit and the rest with another payment method. Note that cultural events do not include entrance fees to fairs, cooking courses, wine tastings, or amusement parks. You can find more precise instructions from Finnish Tax Administration's website.

Buying event tickets with the cultural benefit

Edenred card and Virikeseteli® voucher can be used at most of Finland's most common ticket-selling companies: Tiketti, Ticketmaster Suomi and Lippupiste, of which Tiketti also offers an online payment as a payment method. You can buy tickets normally from ticket selling outlets that accept Edenred's payment methods. Remember to check from our search engine that the chosen outlet is using Edenred's payment methods because the acceptance of cards and vouchers is always dependent on the merchant.

You can also book a ticket by phone or via the internet and pay it with a card at the ticket selling outlet or most of the R-Kioski stores. Look for more precise instructions below. Remember that the cultural benefit given to you is a personal benefit offered by your employer, so buying tickets for example for your friend or family member is not possible. Also, pay attention to the ticket pick-up date, the last pick-up date may be marked on the same day as the booking is made!

Tiketti

Online store

You can buy tickets directly from Tiketti's online store and pay for your purchases with Edenred's recreational benefit. When you buy a ticket to an event that is payable with a cultural benefit, you will find the Edenred icon in the payment method menu.

Please note that you can only pay for the ticket for your personal use. If you buy more than one ticket for the same event at the same time, you can pay for your own ticket with the recreational benefit and the remaining amount with another payment method of your choice. You can also buy a gift card for yourself from Tiketti's online store. In addition to the ticket, you can also pay a ticket delivery fee with your benefit.
