

Utilize your cultural benefit

If your employer is offering you recreational benefit, you have a wide selection of cultural events to choose from. You can buy tickets to events with Edenred card (Ticket Duo® and Ticket Virike® cards) and with Virikeseteli® vouchers.

Cultural events include visits to following places and events:

- Movie theatres
- Concerts
- Museums
- Art exhibitions
- Sport events
- Science centers
- Some of the art- and language courses (no material costs)

Note that culture events do not include entrance fees to trade shows, cooking courses, wine tastings or amusement parks. You can find more precise instructions from Finnish Tax Administration's website.

Buying event tickets with cultural benefit

Edenred card and Virikeseteli® voucher can be used at the most of the Finland's most common ticket selling companies (Ticketmaster Suomi, Lippupiste and Tiketti). Note that cards cannot be used to make online payments. You can buy tickets normally from ticket selling outlets that accept Edenred's payment methods. Remember to check from our search engine that the chosen outlet is using Edenred's payment methods, because the accepting of cards and vouchers is always dependent of the ticket selling outlet.

You can also book a ticket by phone or via internet and pay it with a card at the ticket selling outlet or at most of the R-Kiosk stores. Look for more precise instructions below. Remember that the cultural benefit given to you is a personal benefit offered by your employer, so buying tickets for example for your friend or family member is not possible.
